

A final message from the Subject Centre Director.

December 20th 2011

The Subject Centre for Philosophical and Religious Studies (PRS) was in operation from January 2000 to December 2011. During that time it supported academics and support staff in PRS disciplines through the development of sub-disciplinary and themed networks, grant funding, conferences and workshops, web resources and guides, consultancy and the journal Discourse. The functions of the Subject Centre have now been transferred to the Higher Education Academy (<http://www.heacademy.ac.uk>).

The staff at the Subject Centre would like to thank all those who contributed to the Subject Centre's success over the years, and hope that colleagues and friends will continue to use our resources in years to come.
